The discovery that less than half a million specie had been engaged for to-morrow's steamer rendere the gold market weak, and produced an eventual decline from 111% to 111%. The dealings were light and the tone of business dull. The course of the market is shown in the table:—

STOCKS IRREGULAR AND DULL.

The stock market was generally dull, as if the street were pausing for the result of the Lake Shore meeting at Cleveland before undertaking any new engagements either way. Lake Shore opened heavy in the morning and dropped off to 108%, but eventually rallied as far as 199%. Outside of these shares and Ohio and Mississippi there was very little doing. The clique in Northwest appear to have patched up a peace and com-menced a fresh movement for a rise. The common stock advanced to 86% and the preferred favorite and moved up to 114%. The Reading party also made further progress in their specialty. Upon the reaction in Lake Shore the market as sumed a little more life, and toward the close might have been called buoyant. THE ENGLISH ERIE STOCKHOLDERS' WAR.

Motion for Attachment to Produce the Ledgers-Jay Gould's Affidavit.

Another general field day came off in the United States Circuit Court yesterday in a renewal of the legal joust between Heath and Raphael as complainants and Jay Gould and the Erie Company as defendants. The affair came before Judge Blatchford on a motion for attachment to take the corpus of Mr. Gould into custody and deposit the same not in the Tombs, but in Ludlow Street Jail, until he shall have compiled with the order of the Master appointed by the Court, Mr. Kenneth G. White, to produce for examination the books of the company. hir. Beach, counsel for the company, opposed the motion. Messrs. Southmayd & Evarts claimed the motion on the ground as well put, that while Mr. Gould said he would produce the required books at the offices of the company in the Grand Opera House, the case of the plaintiff was that the proper place to try a legal question was not where the light fantastic toe prevailed, but where his Honor could sit in judgment upon matters he was more familiar with than legs. After a protracted argument, based upon the evidence fully reported in the HERALD during the examination before the Masier, the Court reserved its decision.

JAY GOULD'S AFFIDAVIT.

The following is the affidavit of Mr. Jay Gould in his answer to the order of the Master:— The following is the amidavit of Mr. Jay Gould in his answer to the order of the Master:—

That there is no disposition on the part of the Eric Railway Company, so far as this defendant is informed, nor on the part of this deponent, to obstruct or embarras a foil examination by the defendants and their connect of the chooks of said company; that the said company and this deponent have been advised by counsel, and therein correctly, that the jurisdiction of said books in court cannot be ligally required, and that no officer of said company has the power to more or cause to be moved said books from their place of deposit in the officers of said company; that while there are many books containing the records of past transactiogs which might be temporarily so moved the production in court of such as would be required by the extended order sought by the defendant would scriously interrupt the management of the daily business of said company, and be likely to produce unavoidable confusion in the affairs of said company and trreparable injury to its interests; that said company, as far as this the deponent, and each of the officers of said company, as far as this the deponent has knowledge or control, are entirely willing and ready to furnish the defendants sworn copies of any entire upon said books they may require, or to submit such books to their inspection and to the inspection of their counsel, as the office of said company, and to afford to them every facility for their complete examination. And this deponent further says that his reluctance before the Master to direct the production of the books of said company, as required by the exercal orders, did not arise from any disrespect for the officer or for the authority of this court, nor irom any deafer to prohibit their examination, but from the conviction then and, now entertained by this deponent that he had no authority to move them from the possession of the follow have remained by this deponent that he had no authority to move them from the possession of the been the purpose of this deponent nor of the said company or its officens, so far as he is informed, to deprive the defendants or any other person of the spossession and advantage of any certificates of the stock of said company to which they may be inwriting entitled; that the possession by Heath and Raphael of the certificates of 60,480 shares of said stock, mentioned in the proceedings in this action, was obtained under mousial circumstances, which are perticularly hereinsafter described, and that such possession as into deponent believes was not founded on any real ownership by them of said shares, but originated in an unfair and fraudulent stockjobbing design, which, if successful, would have been detrimental to the interests of said company. That this suit was instituted in the Supreme Court of the State of New York to prevent the consummation of that design and to compet the restoration of such stocks to its real owners; that this suit was abandoned by the plaintiffs by the advice of counsel for the reason that the compaint did not fully present the grounds upon which relief was saked, and from considerations arising out of the partial removal of the case into this court, and a new soil was instituted in said State court with the same objects which are now pending in that court, and a new soil move particularly states in said state court with the same objects which are now pending in that court, and a new soil as court, the 61,400 shares of stock mentioned in the proceedings, then in the hands of the received with particularly states in said state court with the same objects which are now pending in that court, and a new certificates thereupon issued to him as such reactiver; that such surrenders and exchange were maked by and receiver to the said company, and to be by him exchanged for new certificates thereupon issued to him as such registration, the said own are moved to his court, and the original certificate for the Stock mentioned to his court, and the came of his own as a leavest published the not which can't to the registration of the certificates by the reeiver.

And this deponent further says that the issue of 30,000 shares of new stook remultioned in the Master's return berein was required by the necessities of said company; that as this deponent is avertiad and believes it was lawfully issued; that the use of these certificates, so as aforesaid autrendered by as directiver as the basis for the registration of said new stooks, was solely to avoid the delay in its issue which would necessarily follow from compilance with the rule of the Stock Exchange by giving thirty days' notice of such intended issue, and that any other cancelled certificates would have asswered the same purpose; that although as this deponent is adviced. and that any other cancelled certificates would have answered the same purpose; that although as this deponent is advised by his counsel and believen, an inquiry into the circumstances rendering such new issue necessary and affecting its validity is not pertinent in this action; nevertheless, if ordered by this court, the deponent is ready to afford every facility for such investigation in the incomer hereinbe organized, and he believes that the said company and each of its officers will do so.

After hearing counsel on either side at great length, the Court took the papers and reserved decision.

To dispel any impression or prejudice that might exist in the minds of many against my Preparations from the publicity given through advertising, and that I am and have been a draggrat for a period of twenty years, and more conclusively to prove this, see letter: [From the Largest Manufacturing Chemists in the World.] Nov. 4, 1854.

I am acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise. WILLIAM WEIGHTMAN,

Firm of Powers & Weightman, Manufacturing Chemists, Ninth and Brown streets, Philadelphia. The Pau I have thought of offering to the afflicted for ten They are now perfect, and I shall stake my time, money and fame on their effectiveness. The inviting style in which the Pill Reelf is made, the bottle, label, wrapper, all show with what care they have been propared. After examina tion, no English or French Preparation will show greater care, and I am really proud of them.
